

NALS OF MICHIGAN INVITES YOU TO JOIN US FOR ANOTHER WEBINAR AS PART OF OUR SUMMER CLE SERIES

HOW TO KEEP REMOTE WORKERS HEALTHY AND ENGAGED

The expansion of the remote workforce because of social distancing has employers and employees adjusting to a new reality. Workers need more support than ever to stay healthy and engaged as they overcome the interruptions to their daily routines. Opportunities for workers to stay virtually connected and encouraging healthy behaviors for both body and mind will be key to keeping up morale.

Join us as Lynn Zimmerman from WellRight shares ideas for employers and employees alike to thrive in this new remote workforce environment.

Lynn joined the WellRight team in 2018 as VP of Marketing. With leadership experience in communications strategy, product management, and automated lead generation, plus a background in healthcare technology, Lynn brings with her a passion to promote software as a service that helps people. Her experience includes the healthcare business of Thomson Reuters and the American Hospital Association. She earned her MBA from DePaul University.
